PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we the Catholic Parish of St. Ann embrace all as family & continue Christ's mission by exemplifying the love of God & neighbor as stewards of God's gifts to us.

MARRIAGES:

The common policy of marriage requires that arrangements be made at least One Year before the date of marriage and before any social plans are made. Bride or Groom must be a parishioner. Please do not make any arrangements until you have met with the pastor, Msgr. Corona, and the wedding date has been approved.

BAPTISM:

First Sunday of the month at the Noon Mass, as well as the second, third and fourth Sunday at 1:30pm. Instruction for new parents takes place on the second Saturday of the month at 10am. Arrangements are made with the rectory.

SPONSORS & GODPARENTS:

Must be 18 years old, registered as an adult and be confirmed in the Catholic Church. If you are married, your marriage must be recognized by the church. This is especially important if you wish to be a sponsor for Confirmation or a Godparent for Baptism. It takes 6 months of attending Mass to be eligible for both of these privileges.

LAZARUS MINISTRY:

Lazarus Ministry contacts and helps families of deceased parishioners. Providing greeters at funeral liturgies, preparing meals and house sitting are several ways parishioners assist families. Also, a Mass of Remembrance is held every November for those deceased that year.

MINISTRY TO THE SICK:

Parishioners who are homebound are visited on the first Friday of each month by our Deacons & Religious. If you know of a parishioner that is seriously ill or hospitalized, please call the rectory.

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - JUNE 14, 2015

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - JUNE 14, 2015

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Dante Gabriel Rossetti, a nineteenth-century English poet, was also a considerable artist. One day an elderly man asked him if he would come and view some drawings he had done and tell him what he thought of them. Being kind-hearted, Rossetti at once agreed, but when the art-work was put on display before him he could see that it had no real artistic merit. Reluctantly, he had to tell the old man that the pictures were of little value. The man's reaction seemed to show that he wasn't too surprised by the judgement, but he asked Rossetti if he would be so kind as to take a look at two or three other pictures before he went. They were, he explained, the work of a young man and it would be good to get Rossetti's assessment of them. This time Rossetti's enthusiasm was unmistakable. "Oh, yes," he said, "these are very good, fine, full of promise. Tell me, who is this young artist; is it by any chance your son?" The old man shook his head. "No," he said, "it's me; I did them forty years ago. If only someone had given me that kind of encouragement, I'd never have lost heart and given up."

Whether we're young or old, we stand in need of encouragement. That is true especially of our spiritual life: in our efforts to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, it's easy to get discouraged, to feel that we are making little or no progress. At times we wonder whether we mightn't even be going into reverse.

If that's how we feel, today's Scripture Lessons could serve as a spiritual pick-me-up. The prophet Ezekiel, who gave us our Old Testament Lesson, lived at one of the most disastrous periods of Israel's history, when its people had been hauled off into exile far away from their homeland and many were feeling that God had abandoned them. Ezekiel assures them that this is not so. On the contrary, the Lord has a plan for his people; he will pluck them up, like taking a tiny twig from a branch, and transplant them so that they will grow into a vast tree. That magnificent tree, though Ezekiel himself could not have known it, stands ultimately as a symbol of the kingdom of God.

In the Gospel Lesson, Jesus tells a parable, a story with a message not unlike that of Ezekiel. He speaks of a tiny mustard seed, which grows so huge that it provides a resting place for all the birds of the air. He tells us that the kingdom of God is like that. Despite its tiny beginnings---from one virtually unknown young man who died by crucifixion---it has not only survived over two thousand years of history but still holds in its embrace millions of people throughout the world. We are reminded that nothing can ultimately thwart God's plans.

While this parable gives us the big picture of God at work, Jesus tells another parable, which might be described as God's work in miniature. God works not only on the grand scale, not only in nations and among nations, but also on the small scale, in the lives of individuals. So Jesus tells the story of a farmer who sows his seed and then, until the harvest arrives, must patiently wait. All he knows is that secretly, night and day, the seed is growing, always growing, though he doesn't know how; one day it will produce the blade, then the ear and finally the full grain of wheat.

In our lives, too, the Lord has sown his seed and is permanently at work within us; but, as St. Paul explains, for the moment we do not see it, for we live by faith, not by sight. While we are called to cooperate, the work of salvation is God's achievement, not ours. In fact God is longing for us to grow in faith and hope and love, in freedom and goodness, more than we do ourselves. That is why the Psalmist can speak of believers who have grown old still continuing to flourish, "still full of sap, still green". That is why Paul can proclaim, "We are always full of confidence." That is why we, far from losing heart, can humbly look forward to the day when the Lord comes; for then he will reveal the harvest that has been achieved in us.

May God always be pleased with us!

Monsignor Michael

Our Scripture Lessons remind us:

- ...that the story of an old man who could have become a famous painter if only he had been encouraged when he was young shows us that we all stand in need of encouragement;
- ...today's Scripture Lessons, each in its own way, offer us that encouragement;
- ...and that because God is secretly at work in the depth of our being, we can humbly look forward to the harvest.

May God always be pleased with us. Amen!

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - JUNE 14, 2015

Dear Friends of St. Ann School,

This week the faculty will meet to debrief, to set goals, and to plan for next year. It may seem contrary to the way of the world but it is one of the ways we improve our school and keep our selves true to our label as a vibrant, growing, school.

The first day we celebrate and debrief. We have a luncheon sponsored by the Home and School Association to recognize and thank the adults who labor in the vineyard of education each day. But we also review the entire year in terms of pros, cons, do overs, and trade ins. Even though we are built on solid traditions, we make sure that what we do remains viable and attractive to our students.

We will be reviewing this year's goals and checking our success at hitting the intended targets. We then set goals for next year based on where we want to take our school and where you, parents, and students expected that we will be going. This takes the most time, planning, and education. It is time for teachers to dream big and educate themselves on the possibilities.

This year we are going to let the Fortune 500 companies guide us. The teachers will decide on how best to blend what we have with the 21st century thinking and skills needed for our students to thrive in the future. Key words that stand at the finish line are innovation, creativity, engaging, open ended, and synergetic thinking. We will be using a groundbreaking production by ASCD (Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development) as our guide.

Teachers will leave at the end of the week ready for vacation but with hope and excitement to begin not again but new and renewed.

Thank you for your continued support.

God bless you,

Sr. Mary Klersey, MPF
Principal
