14 SEPTEMBER, 2014 —THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

One hundred years ago today, the First Battle of the Aisne marked the beginning of the trench warfare that characterized the First World War. The surrounding landscape offered no protection to either side in the battle. Unequipped to dig trenches, both the Allied forces and the Germans sent soldiers to neighboring farms to requisition spades, shovels, pickaxes and any other implements that might help construct what became a four-year nightmare for hundreds of thousands of soldiers. Neither side would give way to the other. The conflict seemed to increase in violence and bloodshed with each passing day. Two years later, almost to the very day, the first tanks supplemented the weapons - and so the death toll rose, so that, by the end of the war, there were more than thirty-seven million military and civilian casualties.

Yet others in the field of battle, non-combatants, daily risked their lives, serving as nurses and ambulances drivers. Many of these were women. Were they afraid? Of course they were! Courage does not mean that someone feels no fear. Rather, the brave person is one who does what is right in spite of personal fear, perhaps in spite of sheer terror, to help others. I've read of those who crawled beyond the trenches into no-man's-land to retrieve the wounded, bringing them to safety in the height of battle. In makeshift field hospitals, medical staff faced previously unimagined injuries and did their best to repair broken bodies and to comfort their deeply traumatized patients. To an extent, they followed orders, but their goodness went above and beyond the call of duty.

Was Jesus afraid? Of course he was. Had he not dreaded the torture and death that he knew awaited him, he would not have been human. Facing increasing opposition from the Jewish authorities, Jesus had a choice: either he could abandon his efforts to tell people of his Father and of the kingdom of God, or he could fulfill his mission even though it would cost him his life. St. Luke's Gospel tells us that, in Gethsemane, Jesus sweated blood, a phenomenon that scientists say only happens under conditions of extreme stress.

Yes, Jesus was terrified, but in a real sense, he had no choice: in his battle against evil, there was no surrender. Humanly speaking, Jesus was weak and undefended, surrounded by friends and supporters who fled when the Going became tough. In the eyes of those who captured him,

Jesus was the inevitable loser and a dangerously outspoken fool who deserved to face the bloody consequences of his words and actions.

Yet the full story went beyond the physical aspects of Calvary. In our Old Testament Lesson, those who rebelled against God and against Moses' leadership needed a bronze serpent to save them from the bite of the poisonous snakes in their midst. Broken humanity needed Jesus to save it from the evil that threatened to engulf the world. Moses raised his fiery serpent on a staff for all to see, Jesus, on the cross, would be, for all time, a sign of the resurrection to come.

The feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross recalls the day when in AD326, according to tradition, St. Helena, mother of the Roman emperor Constantine, discovered the True Cross and subsequently built the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem. The cross, however, is more than a holy relic; it has a meaning that underpins the whole of Christianity. It proclaims that Jesus, as human as we are, overcame his fears and faced suffering and death in a supreme act of self-sacrifice. It declares that there is no Easter Sunday unless it is preceded by Good Friday.

The unsung heroes and heroines of the First World War gave themselves unstintingly as they tried to protect and defend those around them. That is why, in spite of the horrors of war, we remember them with honor and pride. None of us can escape the experience of suffering. It is part and parcel of our human lives. We do not need to be overwhelmed by our circumstances. Looking towards the crucified Jesus, we can see for ourselves someone who knew rejection and pain from personal experience. The cross is the symbol of the resurrection. Death prepares for eternal life. With Jesus in our sights, we can face anything.

In your charity, pray for the sick and the lonely—visit them if you can. Please remember to pray for all who have wandered from the Faith and all who have died. Also, pray for the souls of all the faithful departed of our Parish Family.

May God always be pleased with us!

Monsignor Michael

Our Scripture Lessons remind us:

...that the brave person is one who does what is right in spite of personal fear;

...that Jesus was terrified, but in his battle against evil, there was no surrender.

...that looking towards the crucified Jesus, we see someone who knew suffering from personal experience;

...and that for us, the cross is the symbol of the resurrection.

...May God always be pleased with us. Amen!

SOCIAL MINISTRY

IHN is Interfaith Hospitality Network- helping families get back on their feet. IHN works with families who are the diverse homeless. Today's homeless condition goes beyond the stereotypes of bag ladies and skid row derelicts. The fastest growing segment of the homeless population is families with children, including the 'working poor.'

These are parents who are working but cannot afford shelter and basic needs. The majority of IHN parents are single women but single men with children and couples are served too. Lack of a living wage, no access to affordable housing, unemployment and the effects of abuse and illness are some of the causes that have forced IHN clients from their homes.

The families are hosted by local churches to receive evening meals, fellowship and a warm place to sleep. During the day, IHN helps them with daily living. St. Ann's supports IHN through preparing meals, fellowship, and companionship. We partner with a local church where we prepare evening meals and stay until the night shift arrives to take over. This is only a few nights per year and we are in need of more volunteers and a new Ministry Head for IHN to represent St. Ann church. For information about IHN and ways to help, please contact Christine at the rectory office at 908-725-1008., ext. 119

Lazarus Ministry Begins at St. Ann's

We are pleased to announce that our Lazarus Ministry here at St. Ann, began on Sept. 5! Named after the friend of Jesus whom the Lord raised from the dead, Lazarus Ministry assists those experiencing a loved one's death. Our primary exclusive focus will be guiding grieving parishioners through the planning of the Funeral Mass, but we will also be providing food dishes for the grieving family in the days immediately prior to, and following, the funeral.

Responding to a request from Monsignor Corona for a Lazarus Ministry and under the guidance of Dottie Pacifico & Fr. John, an appeal was made for Lazarus Ministers at the Sunday Masses six weeks ago. The following parishioners came forward and said "yes": Elizabeth Barbieri, Mark Cusati, Adele DePrimo, Rich DePrimo, Maria Incontrera, Diane Johnson, JoAnn Liptak, Joseph Mele, Chris Miller, Toni Randazzo, Laurie Reynolds, Barbara Ronca, Rob Sause, Theresa Walakonis, Karen White & Susan Wilshaw.

These parishioners will be the Lazarus Ministers who will meet with the grieving families to help them prepare for the Funeral Mass. We thank them for their goodness and self-giving in volunteering for this important ministry. They will be commissioned officially as Lazarus Ministers on September 21 at the 10:30 AM Mass.

We gratefully acknowledge the parishioners who have provided meals for the grieving in the past through our parish's Social Ministry, and who will continue to do so under the Lazarus Ministry umbrella. Our thanks to them as well for their generosity and compassion in providing food for the grieving.

Please pray that the Lord may bless our new Lazarus Ministry here at St. Ann's, that we may comfort the sorrowful, building his Kingdom, pleasing him and growing closer to Him and to one another.

INVITATION TO JOIN ST. ANN YOUTH GROUP / JUNIOR YOUTH GROUP!!!!

All of our parish's young people, grades 6-12, are invited to be a part of our Youth Group! There will be varied events: open-gym nights, field trips, spiritual events and one service-oriented endeavor. Joining Youth Group does not mean you have to attend each & every event; you may attend just the ones that interest you. However, we could use everyone's help with our first Youth Group event: The Meatball Madness fundraising dinner on Friday, Sept. 26. We look forward to as much participation from as many children & parents as possible. Those who wish to join and help may contact Fr. John for the details at jwerner@stannparish.com or leave a message for him at 908-725-1008 by Sept. 16

We are also starting a Jr. Youth Group for those in Pre-K thru 5th grade. There will be bi-monthly events for the children, similar to Youth Group. Some events will be geared towards grades 3,4,5 while others will be designed for Pre-K through grade 2. We could also use the help of the Jr. Youth group members and their parents at Meatball Madness.

All future Youth Group & Jr. Youth Group events will be advertised in the parish bulletin and website and through flyers to be distributed in our Parish School and the PREP Program.

14 SEPTEMBER, 2014—THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

SCHOOL NEWS

Dear Friends of St. Ann School,

This second week of school reinforces our belief in educating the whole child. We give our students varied opportunities to recognize and foster their talents. Our children are educated to one day stand before the Lord and answer, "yes, send me" with full confidence in their skills and abilities to do their unique part in bringing about the Kingdom of God. We want children to thus be productive, happy, successful adults in this world, and to be happy with God in the next.

Music is the voice of the soul. St. Ann begins introducing musical instruments in the third grade. From fourth grade on, children have the option of learning a band instrument and playing in the school band through a wonderful program provided by Mr. and Mrs. Mallinson, strong supportive parishioners of St. Ann Parish. Students learn more than scales and the ins and outs of an instrument. They learn perseverance, the importance of one small part to a whole, and the recognition of individual contributions to the success of the group. They learn team work from a perspective other than sports.

Students were challenged to become leaders within the school. Student Council offers the opportunity to be more than passive recipients of an education, but to take active ownership of the school, its activities, and its environment. Students learn to think and learn about candidates, and to use reason in selecting their representatives. After elections, students are guided to handle the adult sense of victory or defeat. They are taught to live in the spirit of service. Without the appointed title, each is mentored in knowing themselves as loved and valued. Each is personally encouraged to share gifts and talents with the school for its betterment. Each year, I witness students not upset but rejoicing that they indeed have a very special place and job to do in and for their school.

Back to School Night let our children know that they are not alone in their lives at St. Ann School. There is a strong bond between students, family and school. It resembles the bond of the Trinity. We are one in our purpose. We are one in our identity as St. Ann School. How beautiful for a child to walk through any day with one hand held by a family while the other is held by a school. The two are not in conflict. Both love, strengthen, and support the child into adulthood.

Such a school does not happen without people like each of you. Thank you for your continued belief in us and for your support. You are extended family.

God bless you,

Sr. Mary Klersey, MPF
Principal
