This year, the Church will celebrate Catechetical Sunday and the year focused on the theme "Teaching about God's Gift of Forgiveness." Those whom the community has designated to serve in parish ministries will be called forth to be commissioned for their ministry.

We, as a parish, will acknowledge these individuals at Mass on Catechetical Sunday, September 14, 2014, at 9:00am

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Whenever there's a gathering of people--a small gathering, like a family or a football team; or a big one, like a university or a church--there will almost inevitably be disagreements, misunderstandings and fallings-out from time to time. That they occur is no cause for alarm; what happens next may well be.

On the one hand, differences of opinion or viewpoint can lead to brooding and bitterness, and in the case of nation states even to armed conflict. On the other hand, they may result in healing, in helpful discussions, in the airing of grievances. There can be little doubt which is the wise and which the foolish course of action to take. In Winston Churchill's famous quip, "to jaw-jaw is always better than to war-war".

Today's Scripture Lessons center on how best to address the problems that arise within the local church--in particular on the issue of brotherly or sisterly correction. This is clearly a delicate and often thankless task, and yet there are times when it has to be done. Ezekiel, whom we heard in our Old Testament Lesson, insists that just as a sentry is duty-bound to warn of approaching danger, so he, the prophet, must warn those who persist in wickedness of the consequences of their actions.

If his language sometimes seems harsh, it's because the issue is so serious. Indeed, in some ways, Ezekiel's words foreshadow Jesus' own teaching, as presented to us in today's Gospel Lesson. There he reminds us that we have a familial duty to do what we can when a brother's or sister's behavior causes offence, especially when it is a threat to the well-being of the community. The first step is to deal with the matter privately and informally, in the hope that it will result in a peaceful settlement. It is far better to have the courage to speak with wrongdoers face to face than to gossip about them behind their back.

If that fails, stage two is to get the assistance of a couple of others; it will be more difficult to reject the advice of two or three people than that of one. Finally, as a last resort, the matter may have to be brought to the community; and should wrongdoers persist in their waywardness, then they're cutting themselves off from that community. This may have to be officially acknowledged. However, excommunication should be rare, and should be used not as a punishment but rather as encouragement to the wrongdoer to return to the fold. If, as the Gospel puts it, such a person such a person is to be treated "like a pagan or a tax collector", that does not mean that the community are to wash their hands of him or her. On the contrary, just as pagans and tax collectors were a special focus of Jesus' ministry, so Jesus teaches us to include them in the community's mission also.

The New Testament Lesson puts things into perspective: St. Paul teaches us that "Love is the one thing that cannot hurt your neighbor." Christian corrections makes sense only when it is done in the spirit of love. To correct with love means that we don't set out simply to win an argument; we don't descent to sarcasm; we are deeply conscious of our own weakness and sinfulness; we do what we are called to do, aware that the Lord alone knows hearts and can change them.

Loving others may be relatively easy when it's a matter of being generous and compassionate towards them. But there is another, deeper and more costly love; there may be times when we are called to practice the love that cares enough to confront, to challenge and even to oppose. Genuine love refuses to collude with wrongdoing through silence, though there may be situations where wisdom dictates that, for the time being at least, silence is the best policy.

Whenever we have courage to oppose what is evil we are involved in the Church's task of binding and loosing--binding the evil forces that oppress people, loosing the bonds that prevent them from living the fullness of life in God's kingdom. The Christian is called to love enough to speak uncomfortable truths at times--but always in humility and love. The final words of today's Gospel Lesson apply not only to communal prayer but also to every honest attempt to restore peace and harmony within the community: "where two or three meet in my name", Jesus promises, "I shall be there with them."

In your charity, pray for the sick and the lonely—visit them if you can. Please remember to pray for all who have wandered from the Faith and all who have died. Also, pray for the souls of all the faithful departed of our Parish Family.

May God always be pleased with us!

Monsignor Michael

Our Scripture Lessons remind us:

...that in any human gathering there will be disagreements, misunderstandings, behaviour that is damaging to the community;

...that in a Christian community the first aim ought to be to settle the matter privately and informally; if that fails, recourse can be had to others for support, and ultimately to the rest of the community;

...and that at every stage, love must prevail, with the recognition that Jesus supports genuine efforts to bring peace and harmony to the community.

...May God always be pleased with us. Amen!

Lazarus Ministry Begins at St. Ann's

We are pleased to announce that our Lazarus Ministry here at St. Ann, began on Sept. 5! Named after the friend of Jesus whom the Lord raised from the dead, Lazarus Ministry assists those experiencing a loved one's death. Our primary exclusive focus will be guiding grieving parishioners through the planning of the Funeral Mass, but we will also be providing food dishes for the grieving family in the days immediately prior to, and following, the funeral.

Responding to a request from Monsignor Corona for a Lazarus Ministry and under the guidance of Dottie Pacifico & Fr. John, an appeal was made for Lazarus Ministers at the Sunday Masses six weeks ago. The following parishioners came forward and said "yes": Elizabeth Barbieri, Mark Cusati, Adele DePrimo, Rich DePrimo, Maria Incontrera, Diane Johnson, JoAnn Liptak, Joseph Mele, Chris Miller, Toni Randazzo, Laurie Reynolds, Barbara Ronca, Rob Sause, Theresa Walakonis, Karen White & Susan Wilshaw.

These parishioners will be the Lazarus Ministers who will meet with the grieving families to help them prepare for the Funeral Mass. We thank them for their goodness and self-giving in volunteering for this important ministry. They will be commissioned officially as Lazarus Ministers on September 21 at the 10:30 AM Mass.

We gratefully acknowledge the parishioners who have provided meals for the grieving in the past through our parish's Social Ministry, and who will continue to do so under the Lazarus Ministry umbrella. Our thanks to them as well for their generosity and compassion in providing food for the grieving.

Please pray that the Lord may bless our new Lazarus Ministry here at St. Ann's, that we may comfort the sorrowful, building his Kingdom, pleasing him and growing closer to Him and to one another.

ST. ANN YOUTH GROUP / JUNIOR YOUTH GROUP!!!!

All of our parish's young people, grades 6-12, are invited to be a part of our Youth Group! There will be varied events: open-gym nights, field trips, spiritual events and one service-oriented endeavor. Joining Youth Group does not mean you have to attend each & every event; you may attend just the ones that interest you. However, we could use everyone's help with our first Youth Group event: The Meatball Madness fundraising dinner on Friday, Sept. 26. We look forward to as much participation from as many children & parents as possible. Those who wish to join and help may contact Fr. John for the details at jwerner@stannparish.com or leave a message for him at 908-725-1008 by Sept. 16

We are also starting a Jr. Youth Group for those in Pre-K thru 5th grade. There will be bi-monthly events for the children, similar to Youth Group. Some events will be geared towards grades 3,4,5 while others will be designed for Pre-K through grade 2. We could also use the help of the Jr. Youth group members and their parents at Meatball Madness.

All future Youth Group & Jr. Youth Group events will be advertised in the parish bulletin and website and through flyers to be distributed in our Parish School and the PREP Program.

SCHOOL NEWS

Dear Friends of St. Ann School,

The wheels are turning. Wheels on the Hillsborough bus are graciously transporting our children after a long battle over funding the non public school students.

Wheels on cars are rolling in carrying children from all over who depend on parent transportation to make a St. Ann School education possible. Wheels have been pulling into the teacher parking lot earlier and earlier and leaving later and later as teachers gain enthusiasm and excitement about their new classes and assignments.

Wheels on backpacks are visible in even greater numbers as parents strive to provide a safe and healthy means of transporting books and assignments to and from school. Creative little ones and not so little ones have found ways to occupy themselves by rolling an array of new style 'hot wheels' on our cafeteria tables.

Not all wheels that turn are round. I love visiting the classes and watching the wheels turn in the heads of children as they check out their new teacher. Children are known for not being able to keep secrets. Their faces and body language are no different. They tell all. As those wheels turn, I see admiration and trust on their faces. They are very eager to please and to be noticed.

Church is no different for them. As they attend Mass and mingle with the adults, their wheels are turning. They look to the parishioners around them to smile and recognize them. They try to catch your eye so that you notice them. Children have a much truer sixth sense which lets them know when they are loved and accepted and when they are merely tolerated.

With this in mind, I thank you for welcoming our children into your midst. They recognize you as "the lady or man who sit...". Continue to set the example that God would want them to follow. Let them say things like "I want to pray like..." or "When I grow up I will be just like...".

As we make room for the little ones, we are ensuring a future for our Church. For the Kingdom of God that comes to us in these precious packages, covered in skin, let us give thanks.

God bless you,

Sr. Mary Klersey, MPF
Principal
